and HOME Line

I am an attorney representing Prospective Amici in the above captioned case. On November 23, 2022, I phoned the attorneys for Plaintiffs and Defendants and left messages regarding a conference prior to submitting a Motion for Leave to file an Amicus Memorandum. On that date I also emailed each of them regarding a conference, and attached a copy of the proposed Memorandum. On November 25, Philip Kaplan, attorney for Plaintiffs responded with an email indicating opposition to the proposed Motion for Leave. On November 28, I received a phone call from Megan Hafner of the City Attorney's office indicating no opposition to the Motion for Leave.
